The overwhelming balance of power ignited by the Loggers

Saturday night was too much for the Quantico Marines, as they fell 25-3 in the seasons opener for both teams.

Power, on offense and defense,

baffled the Corp both mentally and physically.

Mentally the offense of the Lumberjacks threaded its way through the Marines behind the PAT POWERS (83) moves in on Quantico quarterback Daynor Prince in the early minutes of Saturday's Lumberjack 25-3 victory, and winds up dropping him for a 3 yard loss. Powers played an outstanding game from the defensive end position for the Loggers, and nailing Marine backs five times behind the line of scrimmage.
