THE GREAT METEOR CRATER

Between Flagstaff and Winslow, on highway 66, lies the world's best-preserved impact-collision crater. The 570-foot deep crater was formed some 22,000 years ago and today it is studied by astronauts before journeys to the moon, earth scientists and by public school students.

The crater is named after Daniel Moreau Barringer, who did the original research in the area. He determined that the giant depression was caused by a falling meteorite. The crater is open daily until sundown.

TODAY'S GAME

By Jim Fox
Play-by-Play KCLS Radio

It was 50 weeks ago today that Drake Head Coach Jack Wallace called on quarterback Dennis Redmond to guide the Bulldog fortunes and in his first starting assignment, the spunky Missourian led Drake to a 31-17 win over NAU.

Redmond completed 11 of 22 for 165 yards and two TD's. Jerry Heston, then a freshman, rushed for 120 yards and two scores and both will be back today to lead the Bulldog attack.

Heston is well on his way to becoming the all-time rusher in collegiate football. In 14 games, the 190-pounder has picked up 1,359 yards and scored 19 TD's.

Last week Drake won a 10-7 contest over defending Missouri Valley Conference kingpin, Louisville. The previous week Louisville played a scoreless tie with the University of Vanderbilt.

The Bulldog eight-man front on defense (four down and four linebackers) has caused problems for opposing teams.

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY

The Lumberjacks are now in the midst of a 11-game losing streak; however, the young Axers are doing exactly what was promised by Coach Ed Peasley -- getting better each week.

For the last three weeks NAU team efforts have been superb in the first half and for the first time a good second half was catalogued into the history books. Weber beat NAU 23-7, but the Wildcats knew they had played 60 minutes of football. Sustained drives are beginning to show up and extra effort is being extended by the Lumberjacks.

Players of the week are Vince Crevislon (15) on offense and Randy Wikert (21) defense. Players of the week for the New Mexico Highlands game were Tom Rogers (35) offense and Tom Ramsey (84) on defense.

NAU's players realize that they're young and they all have several years to play, so they are working hard to turn the tables and start a winning streak.

Next week NAU plays host to Montana State in the Homecoming game and on Oct. 16 Nevada-Las Vegas will be in Flagstaff for Band Day.

TENOCHTITLAN

Pow-Wow Visitors to Flagstaff

EACH JULY 4th Flagstaff plays host to Indian Tribes from all across the nation. This colorful ceremony is highlighted by an all-Indian rodeo and nightly ceremonial dances. At left are a group of Navajos and at right are a group of Aztecs from Mexico City. The Aztec name for Mexico City was Tenochtitlan, before the Conquistadors came in the 16th century. The Navajos came from Alaska and Canada.

College of Business Administration

Northern Arizona University's College of Business Administration launched a new degree program this fall -- the Master of Business Administration.

The MBA is designed to develop students for leadership positions in business and government as well as preparing interested students for doctoral work.

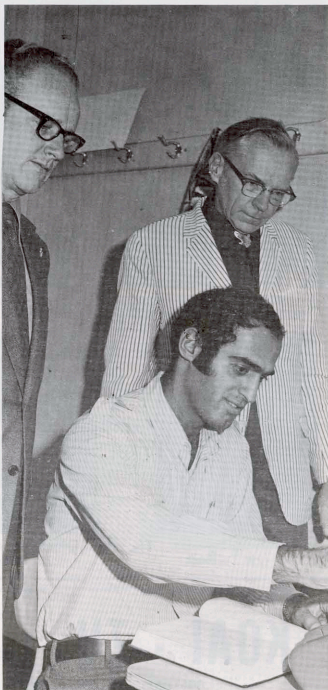

The program offers a thorough study of basic management and business functions and is intended to enhance the student's problem-solving and decision-making abilities.

Besides offering the on-campus student a chance for the advanced degree, the local business people may also participate as the courses will be alternated between regular session and night school, permitting the night school person the chance to attain the MBA.

Students without a business background will be admitted; however, he must pick up 21 hours of foundations classes. Students with an undergraduate business degree can finish in 33 hours.

In its first year, Flagstaff businesses, firms and administrative offices have given 11 grants of $2,670 each for these graduate students who will work as management interns from 1-5 each day.

Those giving grants include: Babbitts; the Arizona Bank; Flagstaff Community Hospital; the Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce; Anthony Choi; certified public accountant; Frost and Foote, certified public accountants; the Northern Arizona Development Council and four administrative offices at NAU, including, the Bookstore, Financial Aids, Records and Admissions and the Bureau of Business Services, the latter has four.

MBA AT NAU -- Lutfalla Khoury, a master of business administration student from Beirut, Lebanon, feeds information into a calculator while working on a problem in his master of business administration program. Looking on are, left, Dr. James Benson, dean of the College of Business Administration and Dr. Jim Massey, of the finance faculty.
