WEBER STATE WILDCATS

Wildcat Stadium * Sept. 25, 1971 * 7:30 PM

By DON SPAINHOWER

Sports Information Director

Weber State's young football team hopes to clean up a few mistakes which cropped up in the first game last week. It was the first time the new wishbone offense and new Missouri defense had been tested.

Defensively the Cats were aggressive, quick, and spirited. Many times there were several Weber players on tackles and the North Texas State team managed only five first downs in the game.

Offensively the new offense rolled up 358 yards rushing and 42 passing for a 400-yard total. The offensive efforts of the Weber State team was highlighted by a corps of hard-running backs who got extra yards with extra effort. Dale Mager engineered the offense and after a first quarter trial and error effort, got the "Y" offense in gear and chewed up yardage and time on the clock.

Halfbacks Rick Rojak and Gary Baltazor had 98 and 45 yards, respectively. Mager ran for 80 yards and fullback Terry Bulych picked up 71 yards on the ground. Fullback Jim Nichols, with 31 yards and a touchdown, and halfback Al Butler, with 34 yards, were also impressive.

The defensive standout of the game was halfback Randle "Rabbit" Anderson, who ran a punt back for a 94-yard touchdown, intercepted a pass in the end zone and deflected a sure touchdown pass on the goal line.

Other defensive stars were tackle Don Ritchey, end Clayton Ah Quin, and linebackers Shane Mosher, John Smith, and Randy McDougall.

Weber's soccer style kicker, Jaime Nunez, had one of his biggest days when he kicked two out of three field goals and two of two extra points. He leads Weber scorers with eight points after one game.

Scouting Report

Weber State's brash young Wildcats, who shut out North Texas State 20-0 in the season opener last Saturday, now enter conference play and host Big Sky foe Northern Arizona University.

Two weeks ago the Lumberjacks lost to Camellia Bowl champions, North Dakota State, 42-9, and last week end dropped a close one to yearly collegiate powerhouse New Mexico Highlands, 34-27.

Coach Bud Belnap, who scouted the NAU-NMH game in Flagstaff, was very impressed with the Lumberjacks personnel.

Northern Arizona linebackers and running backs drew the most praise from Belnap. He singled out All-Conference and All-America middle linebacker Mike (Bo) Boettcher, a 6-3, 230-pound senior.

"Boettcher really sticks! . . . and so do 220-pound Tim Smith and 218-pound Jim Dagley. The Axer backers are big and strong and love to hit," continued Belnap.

The Weber receiver coach pointed out that Northern Arizona, under new coach Ed Peasley, is big and fast, and in the North Dakota State game held the mighty Bison on even terms in the first half.

Belnap couldn't say enough about the Axer running backs when he gave his scouting report to the team on Sunday. "These backs are big, they have excellent speed, and they run hard," exclaimed the Weber coach.

Most impressive were veteran fullback Bill Tate and second team tailback Tom Rogers. "I expect to see Rogers start somewhere this week. Rogers, a 5-11, 200-pound transfer, broke five tackles on one run, and he has fantastic moves.

Tailback Danny White (195) is no slouch either, and we can't ease up on him at all," said Belnap.

About Tate, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, Belnap exclaimed, "He could be one of the finest backs we'll face this year. Tate is a very strong runner and he has fine speed."

While Weber must defend against a strong running game by the Lumberjacks, it is the passing game that could really spell trouble for the Wildcat scrambling defense.

Northern Arizona has a 6-4, 220-pound quarterback by the name of Craig Holland who throws hard and long. Holland quarterbacked the New Mexico freshmen two years ago and redshirted at NAU last year.

The big sophomore quarterback is described as an "accurate passer, strong runner, and confident ball-handler," by NAU experts.

Heading the list of returning receivers are shifty speedster Rosie Van, a 5-7, 150-pound junior split end, and senior end Dick Baserman (6-1, 190).

Weber secondary coach Doug Hunt says that Van "is a 9.3 sprinter who runs like a blur. He could even be quicker than Idaho State's Ed Bell of two years ago." Van only caught one pass against Weber last year, but the Lumberjacks were short on quarterbacks and only completed four passes for 27 yards against the Cat defense.

RESULTS TO DATE

North Texas State 13      BYU 41
WSC 20      North Texas State 0

NEXT

Next week Weber State entertains its old foe, Boise State College. The Broncos, coached by former Utah State coach Tony Knapp, whipped conference co-favorite Idaho, 42-14, in the first game of the season and upped the record to 2-0 by defeating Cal Poly, 18-14.

Boise State might be the surprise team of the league and could beat the Cats next Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. Be sure and get your tickets early for the game.

ED PEASLEY, HEAD COACH

Ed Peasley is in his first year as head coach of the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks. The new Axer coach, a former linebacker coach at Stanford University, replaced John Symank last January.

As a player, Peasley played on one Rose Bowl team with the University of Washington, and was an assistant coach on three Rose Bowl teams.

About NAU

Northern Arizona University was established in 1899 with a total of 23 students. It has passed through various growth phases over the years. The institution's total enrollment is expected to reach over 9,000 this fall.

The University, fully accredited, offers a broad, liberal arts education through its Colleges of Arts and Science, Education, Business Administration, Creative Arts, Engineering, its Schools of Forestry, and Applied Science and Technology, its College of Scientific and Humanistic Studies, and its Graduate College.

Located near the center of Flagstaff on Northern Arizona's 6,800-foot-high Coconino Plateau, the University's 677-acre, tree-shaded campus is noted for its green beauty. It sprawls in the shadow of the 12,800-foot San Francisco Peaks and within the Coconino National Forest, the largest stand of majestic Ponderosa pine in the world.
