LUMBERJACK FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

Those familiar with Joe Salem's ability as a football coach were not at all surprised when he produced an 8-3 finish last season -- NAU's best record in 18 years and first winning season since 1969.

Those that were surprised, now better appreciate his ability as a leader, organizer and recruiter -- all of which add up to a successful program.

After a 1-9 finish in 1975, pre-season tabulations pegged NAU for a 1-10 finish last fall and to go winless in Big Sky play. Salem and his staff took just four senior starters and an energetic group of underclassmen to that monumental 8-3 season which included a 4-2 league mark, good for third place. NAU reached as high as No. 6 nationally among NCAA Division II schools in the national rankings, seven Axer players made All-Conference and two more All-America. Six of those All-Conference players return.

Strong academic counseling and insistence that his football players work steadily toward a college degree has been Salem's philosophy as he enters his 12th year as a head coach at the college level. "When they are 35, they will appreciate the fact they have an education and a saleable job skill," says Salem.

Before coming to NAU, Salem, 39, spent nine years as head coach at the University of South Dakota and his last three years there -- 1972-73-74, his teams shared the North Central Conference titles. He was District 6 Coach of the year in 1972 and in 1968 he was named South Dakota Collegiate Coach of the Year.

In his final three years at South Dakota, his teams were 29-8 and he took over when the stock in South Dakota football was not too likely to enjoy a split. He took over under similar circumstances at NAU.

"We can win with Arizona athletes," was one of Salem's first remarks after being named NAU's coach. Last fall more than half of the team was home grown as will be the case this fall -- 10 of the 11 starters on the defensive unit last fall were Arizonans.

Salem and his wife, Sue, are the parents of four sons -- Tim, 15; Wade, 13 and seven-year old twins Brent and Brad.

MIKE SHANAHAN

DAN RUNKLE is now in his sixth year as a member of Joe Salem's staff and he coordinates the defensive play of the Axers. Last year the defensive unit led the Big Sky in total defense and defense against the rush and for most of the season NAU's defense was nationally ranked in several categories. The 31-year old Runkle earned 10 varsity letters at Illinois College -- four each in football and basketball and two in baseball. He earned his master's degree at Western Illinois. He coordinates NAU's summer sports camp program. Runkle and his wife, Joelle, are the parents of a seven-year old son, Tad, and a year-old daughter, Sara Joelle.

DICK HEESCH---Last fall the offensive line at NAU started showing the "Dick Heesch touch"---that of producing consistent blocking to keep sustained drives alive. The 36-year old Heesch is in his fourth year of working under Salem and his teaching skills are apparent as his linemen know their assignments and execute them well. Was an all conference end at Huron College and earned his master's at South Dakota. Is a captain in the Arizona National Guard. Heesch and his wife, Rea, are the parents of four daughters, Robin 13, Julie 10, Susan 7 and Kristie 4.

JERRY JANSON--Also a four-year member of the Salem staff. The 27-year old Janson is in his second year of coaching the NAU defensive backs. Earlier he worked with the defensive line at NAU and South Dakota. Graduated from Carthage College in Wisconsin and earned his master's degree from Ohio State, where he was a graduate assistant during the 1972 and 1973 seasons, working with the national championship Buckeye teams. Earned varsity letters in football, basketball and baseball at Carthage.

JIM CLEMENTS---Heading into his second year as a member of the NAU coaching staff after serving a year as a graduate assistant in 1975. Coaches the defensive line and helped develop two fine freshmen tackles last fall in A. J. Brill and Jim Anders. The 37-year old Clements graduated from Arizona State and earned his master's degree from Eastern Michigan. Coached 12 years in native Detroit and at Flagstaff High before coming to NAU. Has been valuable member of NAU's booster drive. Clements and his wife, Holly, are the parents of three children, Julie, 11, Tommy 5, and Jill 3.

MIKE SHANAHAN---After serving two years on the University of Oklahoma staff where he worked with the offensive unit and helped coach the Sooner junior varsity, Mike Shanahan came to NAU after the 1976 Fiesta Bowl. The 24-year old Shanahan earned his bachelor and master degrees from Eastern Illinois University where he played quarterback and defensive back. Shanahan is a newlywed, having married the former Peggy Brandt earlier this year.

THE SALEMS -- Head football coach Joe Salem and his wife Sue and their four boys, front, seven-year old twins Brad and Brent and standing, left, Tim, 15; and Wade, 13. Salem is also the offensive coordinator.

THE HEESCHS -- Offensive line coach Dick Heesch, his wife, Rea and their four daughters, left, Robin, 13, Krissy, 4; Julie 10; and Susan, 7.

THE SHANAHANS --- Offensive backfield coach Mike Shanahan and his wife, Peggy. Shanahan is the newest member of the NAU staff, coming from the University of Oklahoma.

and still counting!

This year Karen Hutira joins the hundreds of Arizona students who have received college scholarships from Phelps Dodge over the past quarter century.

A computer science major at Northern Arizona University, Karen is gaining experience in her career field by working at the United States Geological Survey as a computer operator.

Over the years we have provided scholarships to more than 700 Arizona young people, and the figure continues to grow each year.

Phelps Dodge — It means a lot more than just copper.
